

Head Quarters Macaness July 15th 1760.

S^r

The polite, the generous and kind Treatment I have been honor'd with from you and your Lady has impress'd upon my mind the most grateful sentiments, which time will never efface - I once fondly hop'd for a Connection in your Family, and that I should before this had the honor of addressing you in a more respectful manner. My hopes have now vanish'd, and I am oblig'd to give up my long expected happiness. But altho' I never expect to stand in a nearer Relation to you than at present, yet my gratitude will never be diminish'd - I sincerely hope that your daughter will bestow her hand on some worthy agreeable gentleman, who will render her Life perfectly happy, and give you and your Lady the utmost Satisfaction.

Agreeable to your Request I have inclos'd Floyd's Discharge, I wish the poor man may recover his health, and be enabled to procure a competency for his Family,

Please to make my most respectful Compliments to M^{rs} Bishop. and present my sincerest Regards to Miss Waby, M^r Bishop your Son & M^r White. And rest assur'd that I am with the highest sentiments of Respect & Esteem Y^r Oblig'd & very Humble Serv^t Alasdramwell
